CORAM: P.V. KAKADE, J.

DATED: 15TH JULY, 2005

P.C.:

1. Heard learned counsel for both parties. Perused the record. The appeal is already admitted.

2. In view of the facts and circumstances, it is obvious that the eletric and water connections of the appellant are affected due to the dispute. Under the circumstances, it is directed that the appellant shall be entitled to obtain independent electricity and water supply connections at his own expenses in the disputed property and respondent shall not object to the same. This direction is without prejudice to the rights and liabilities of both the parties involved which would be adjudicated at the time of final hearing. With these directions, the application is disposed of with no order as to costs.

C. c. expedited.
